	Spouse	#1 WEDGE, Thomas; #2 BURNHAM, William James [alias ALVAN]	Place	Hawthorn, Victoria [registered under surname BURNHAM]

Transcribed as J M Alvan. Narrowly escaped death at the age of 15 by jumping into a tree as the house she was on the roof of was swept away by the flooded Werribee River. Married to Thomas Wedge at Christ Church in Geelong in 1852, she was 16, he was 36. He divorced her in 1877 in Tasmania. Her next partner was committed to a hospital for the insane, where he died in 1878.

She married William James Alvan in 1879 in Fitzroy, Victoria. His real name was William James Burnham, and he was married already and had a wife living in England. They then lived at St Kilda, and moved to Geelong about 1885. She attended Aberdeen St Baptist Church.

During the mid 1890's they lived in many places in Victoria. The Victoria Police were investigating William James Alvan/Burnham for a number of reasons (one of them bigamy). He spent 6 months in Geelong Gaol in 1897, and at or around this time she must have begun using the surname "Burnham", as when she died in 1900 her husband registered her death as Annie Maria Burnham.

Have found Frederick [Geelong West] but not William as yet but despite going through Newtown, West and City rates seem to be still missing a number of entries for Aberdeen Street.
Mother Ann Catherine listed as owning two adjacent properties and William/Sarah could be with her or in one of these.

Sarah, wife of William died Eureka Street 1893 - looking more likely that Sarah ANNEAR was the one married to Frederick.

Anne's father John AXAM signed his will on the 21st October 1891 and died on 23rd October 1891. In this will he bequeathed all his real and personal estate to James Hargrave INGHAM Wesleyan Minister (husband of Elizabeth Harris nee IVEY) and James BROWN of Drysdale, storekeeper; except for five pounds to each of his grandchildren. Then .. he said, "I direct that the house and garden that I now occupy .. . shall be held by my executors for the benefit of my daughter Anne AXAM on the sole condition that she never marry or has anything to do with James BENNETT and I direct should she marry, keep company or have anything to do with the said James BENNETT then the said house and land shall be held in trust for the benefit of my grandchildren".

(He may have been right as after Anne died in 1917 James married widow Louisa GALLOP (nee REYNOLDS) the same year. Louisa had a very substantial estate from George GALLOP who died in 1914).
